IS MAXIMALISM AND/OR MINIMALISM FOR YOU??

Two Day Workshop

with... Mary Brown

20th - 21st January 2022

Mary Brown's workshop on Maximalism and Minimalism in Art will be educative and practical, leading to a design for an artwork.

Maximalism or Minimalism, or a combination of both – which will it be for you?

Maximalism can be detailed, ostentatious, chaotic, polychromatic, decorative, etc.

Maximalists also love to appropriate.

Minimalism in art and design also has unique decorative tendencies, but it is typically characterised by the modernist grid, symmetry, geometry, sparseness and monochromatic colour.

On the first day Mary will show a PowerPoint to illuminate these art movements and to inspire you. Then you will begin to design for a wall work or a sculpture. Mary loves to extend you conceptually in her workshops.

She will also suggest stitching possibilities for you to mull over, accompanied by samples or demonstrations.

This workshop will suit all level of skill
